FROM THE PASTOR...

Thoughts for the New Year

As we start this new year, I wonder if you've considered the distinction between these three related words. So, I'll ask it this way: what's the difference in your mind between being... #1 organized, #2 unorganized, or #3 disorganized? Is one of these better than another for you? It seems to me that people fall into one of these categories, and each thinks theirs is the "right way." Each camp even comes to pride themselves as the best way everyone ought to be. Yet if every group has a way of finding what they want in speedy fashion – whether in neatly filed folders in a file cabinet, or organized stacks on a desk or tables, or segmented clutter – who's to say that everyone should do things my way. If it works for you, that's all that really counts, right?

So what about your plans for these coming 12 months? As we grapple with the agonies of our annual "planning binge" and the realities of promises–made and promises–broken, those thoughts should remind us of the ONE whose Word is always steadfast and sure! Despite our steadfast desire to do better and follow through on those New Year resolutions... no matter how well conceived... how earnestly desired... how seriously decided upon... how well intentioned... they almost always wind up on the scrap heap of "best-laid-plans." And thanks be to God that our eternal destiny does not depend on how well we follow through, or don't! That's what forgiveness is all about and why the New Testament constantly speaks of God's mercy and grace. Our Triune God is steadfast and faithful to His Word in each and every new year (and that will never change.)

Yet there is one final truth to remember: His faithfulness has enormous power for the NOW of our existence. Let us never doubt that. Although our Heavenly Home depends on Christ alone, this life has a strong connection to eternal life. The Holy Spirit calls us to live our new life right now, not in some far-off time and place. He promises to guide and direct and prosper that newness of life that hearkens back to our Baptism. By His power and indwelling within us, we can give a strong witness for our Lord, as we provide a glimpse into heaven and a picture of our Savior for this world's weary and jaded travelers in 2020.

May God bless you richly this year!

~Pastor Hildebrandt

THOUGHTS FOR 2020

Every morning lean thine arms awhile
Upon the windowsill of heaven
And gaze upon thy Lord.
Then, with the vision in thy heart,
Turn strong to meet thy day.
~Thomas Blake

A SACRED PARTNERSHIP

Bible scholar William Barclay notes that John the Baptist was “startled and unwilling” when Jesus asked to be baptized. The evangelist thought he needed what Jesus could give, not the reverse!

We are pros at taking our needs to God – indeed he invites this: “Call on me in the day of trouble” (Psalm 50:15). But God also comes to us with needs: “Mortal, I am sending you” (Ezekiel 2:3, NRSV); “Go ... make disciples” (Matthew 28:19); “Carry each other’s burdens” (Galatians 6:2, NIV).

Apparently, God prefers partnership to acting solo. From the beginning, God has invited people to name the animals, tend the garden, welcome strangers, build the tabernacle, proclaim his word, ensure justice and mercy, share his love.

What does God need from you, as Jesus needed baptism from John? Salvation is God’s alone to accomplish, but then he calls us to share work with him, for the world’s sake. So we echo Jesus: “Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this” (Matthew 3:15, NIV).

~Heidi Mann

Thank you Rachel Schlie for jumping in and putting together the January 2020 newsletter. It is definitely a team effort by all the members of the congregation to get you the information and then to get it pulled together for publication. ~Lorilynn

A SENSE OF SECURITY...

I'm sure most of you are aware of the unfortunate incidents in Texas and New York two Sundays ago. Both were directed at people of faith. My purpose in bringing this to your attention is to remind everyone how diligent we must be during this time in our lives, dealing with people with drastically different philosophies and radical behaviors. Bad things can happen to good people. I can't stress enough to everyone how important it is that we all remain focused on not only the "unusual" actions going on around us, but we must also be aware of what we might normally consider "usual". It is all too easy to be lulled into a false sense of security with everyday habitual habits.

Several folks have asked me, "Do we have a security team?" As most of you know, the answer is YES. There are a few members on the team who are armed on Sundays, just to give us a leg up of potential challenges to our community. All are properly licensed and do maintain their skills. (If you have not given the church office a copy of your carry permit, please do that as soon as possible. We maintain a file for our insurance company and the police, in the event we ever experience an incident. Speak with Lorilynn if you have any questions.)

It is truly disturbing that we have to take such precautions, but threats do exist and can present themselves anywhere and at any time, including right here at Cross of Christ. You must always be vigilant about your surroundings no matter where you are. It just might make the difference of staying safe.

~Tony Pessini

WE NEED YOUR HELP...

It has recently been brought to our attention that our hymnal ribbons are not being treated correctly. The ribbons are not to be braided, unraveled or stripped into frayed pieces. When we buy hymnals, we pay a few cents more to have these ribbons inserted into our hymnals, in order for our members to mark sections to use during the worship services. Lately, we have had to cut out ribbons that have been destroyed or deemed unusable for use by our members. Please help us keep our hymnals in good condition for use by both members and visitors alike. Thank you.

The Adventure Continues!!

Our dear friend, former member, and former church/community counselor Regena Kressenberg, has been accepted and will be leaving (and beginning her lifetime dream of being a missionary) for Kampala Uganda sometime between March and June of 2020. She needs to raise $20,000.00 as her estimated budget. We'd like to help her. The quilts in the Narthex were made and donated by Regina to our quilters. Our quilters have decided to turn around and sell them for $75.00 and then return ALL the proceeds to Regina for her adventure.

If you'd rather give a donation, this Sunday in the bulletin, there will be a handout detailing her new adventure to serve as a counselor and an Africa Inland Missionary. (Handout's are also available on the quilt rack.) Pick up an extra, no pickup two, and share this ministry!

All support must be in by April 29th and checks must be made payable to Africa Inland Missions (please do not put Regena's name on the check nor in the memo area). All checks must be mailed to Regena, for her to turn in with her additional paperwork. Any support in addition to the quilts, will help us share in the mission for the Kingdom. If you have further questions, please contact Eunice Timm (624-2588) or call and talk to Regina directly at 423-903-2231 before she leaves.
